REPLY AFFIDAVIT OF MARC ARONOWITZ

Marc Aronowitz, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

1. I am an employee of Chatterjee Management Company ("CMC"). I make the following statements of my own knowledge, except as to those matters set forth in this affidavit as being based on my belief or understanding. With respect to the latter, I believe them to be true.

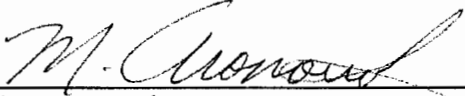

2. I understand that, on page 21 of its memorandum in opposition to the motion for summary judgment of the defendants George Soros and Purnendu Chatterjee, the plaintiff, Jet Star Enterprises Ltd. ("Jet Star"), makes the following statements:

"A letter mailed to CS Aviation at this address [888 Seventh Ave.] on March 4, 2004, by the New York State Department of Labor states: 'On the basis of information received, we have processed a partial transfer of experience from your account to Windshear Leasing LLC, Employer Registration Number 46 – 58149, effective July 21, 2003. This is in keeping with the provisions of New York State Unemployment Law, which provides for a transfer of experience when one employer acquires in whole or in part, the business of another.' The amount of the rescinded tax bill was $27,500.00." (Citations and emphasis omitted.)

3. I have the responsibility, at CMC, of monitoring legal and regulatory matters.

Neither Dr. Chatterjee nor anyone else at CMC would have requested (or, to the best of my knowledge, did request) that the New York State Department of Labor transfer the experience rating of C-S Aviation, prior to July 21, 2003, to Windshear Leasing, LLC. Similarly, to the best of my knowledge, the State of New York has never asserted that Dr. Chatterjee had any liability whatsoever with respect to any unemployment taxes due from C-S Aviation or Windshear, whether in the amount of $27,500 or any other amount.

Sworn to under the pains and penalties of perjury this 7th day of July, 2006.
